Course Preferences

Please list courses in order of preference. Full-time course-based LLM students enroll in three courses per semester in their first year, including Law 703. At least two of these courses must be at the 600-level or above, and at least two must be Law courses that include evaluation by a research paper worth at least 50% of the grade. Students who intend to specialize in NREEL must take their five other courses in the NREEL area. You may choose Law 705 instead of one of the five courses if you wish. Please provide at least one extra, backup course each semester. Although graduate students seldom are take courses outside of Law, if you are interested in such courses or in directed research courses, please contact the Graduate Program Director to discuss your ideas. Further information about requirements and courses is available on the Current Graduate Students website.

You must activate your registration via your My Uof C portal before you can be registered in any courses. Course selections can be altered, subject to availability, until the add/drop deadlines in September and in January. Please consult the Graduate Program Director about any changes you are considering to your registration, as there are program requirements that you must fulfill. Program requirements are listed under Program Descriptions in the University of Calgary Graduate Calendar each year (see <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/>).

Please return this form to your Graduate Program Administrator, at lawgrad@ucalgary.ca.
